CAMPAIGN FOR HOME RULE ON

Ralph T. Lewis Heads County Committee To Conduct Drive Here.

WILL BE VOTED ON NOV. 7

Marion and Mt. Gilead Men Named to Posts in State Organization.

State and county organizations of the County Home Rule association which will conduct an intensive campaign in support of the county home rule amendment to be voted on in the Nov. 7 election were completed today.

A committee headed by Ralph T. Lewis as chairman and composed of Mr. Lewis, Hoover Brown, J. H. Watters and Ben T. Wiant was announced by the Chamber of Commerce this morning. This committee will carry on the campaign in this county.

Watters on Committee

At the same time, it was announced at Columbus that J. H. Watters has been named to represent Marion county on a state committee of 100 persons to oversee the campaign.

Frank B. McMillin of Mt. Gilead, president of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, also is a member of the state committee.

The county home rule amendment, according to Charles P. Taft II of Cincinnati, chairman of the County Home Rule association, would remove from the state constitution barriers which now block the way to improvement in county government.

The Marion county committee will meet and plan a campaign as soon as instructions are received from the association, W. D. Brown, manager of the Chamber, said.

Among the other members of the state committee are: Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war; Dr. W. O. Thompson, president emeritus, Ohio State university; Mrs. N. M. Stanley, president, Ohio League of Women Voters; Colonel William Cooper Proctor, president, Proctor Gamble Co.; Max S. Hayes, labor editor; Harry McLaughlin, president, Ohio Federation of Labor; Fred Lazarus, president, Ohio Council of Retail Merchants; Daniel E. Morgan, former city manager of Cleveland; Addison Q. Thacher, mayor of Toledo; Dr. J. O. Englemann, president, Kent State College; Otto D. Donnell, president, Ohio Oil Co.; Dr. A. H. Upham, president, Miami university; Senator D. J. WIVES OF STRIKERS JOIN MINE PICKETING

10,000 Women March on Springfield, Ill., Coal District.

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 20—Teeming with thousands of dissatisfied members of the Progressive Miners union, Springfield today became the object of a concerted march of their women folk.

Mrs. Agnes Wieck of Belleville, Ill., president of the 85 Progressive auxiliaries, said upwards of 10,000 women would join the men in picketing mines of the Peabody Coal Co.

Meanwhile, national guardsmen stood in readiness to quell any factional outbreaks between the Progressives and the United Mine Workers union, whose men are employed in the mines. Yesterday a street brawl resulted in the death of a Progressive and the arrest of a United member.

Presumptive Cases To Be Cut in Half

Boards Announce Trend of War Vet Benefit Examinations.

(Copyright, 1933, by The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—Less than half the war veterans whose future benefit payments depend on proving their presumptive disabilities to be service connected today secured a line for continued compensation.

Special boards of the veterans administration have reviewed 50 per cent of the presumptive cases. Unofficial but closely checked figures showed only 40 per cent of this cross section entitled to retain their benefits.

Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, veteran administrator, has asked President Roosevelt to extend the Oct. 31 deadline for the boards to pass on the remainder of cases where compensation has been paid on the presumption the former soldiers contracted their disabilities during the war service.

Extension Expected

Such an extension would mean that veterans who have been getting 75 per cent of their former compensation since March 20, when the economy act was enacted, will continue to receive that amount beyond Oct. 31, until their cases are acted on.

President Roosevelt was expected to issue an extension order.

Although previous estimates of the presumptive cases have ranged as high as 150,000, a well-informed quarter today placed them at nearer 53,000.

Delays in organizing the boards were credited with having slowed up the work, which officials desire to complete before congress convenes.

Conclusions of the review board were awaited eagerly by veterans organizations.

To Name Board

Of particular importance to them was the personnel of the general board of review—the court of last appeal from decisions of the state groups—which was reported today to be ready for announcement next week. This appellate body will comprise six members from within the veterans' administration and nine from outside.

Although no official figures have been announced by the veterans administration on progress of the presumptive case reviews, unofficial reports indicate a wide variation as between states in the ratio between veterans kept on the rolls and those disallowed. They were reported in some instances to show disallowances running as high as 82 per cent, with 18 per cent continued under benefits, while in others 80 per cent were ruled service connected and only 20 per cent stricken off.

The fate of the presumptive disability veterans lately has overshadowed the bonus and other elements of past veteran efforts.

NRA EXEMPTION FOR SMALL TOWNS GOAL

Truax Appears Before General Johnson With Proposal.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—Exemption of industries in towns of 3,500 population and less from complying with provisions of the NRA has been recommended to the recovery administration by Congressman Charles V. Truax of Bucyrus, O., he said.

The congressman explained the small towns are dependent upon farm prosperity, and that because commodity prices have increased faster than farm prices, small producers and merchants are making no progress.

Church Group Elects At Last Session Today

Election and installation of officers and the report of the committee on resolutions were to be made this afternoon at the closing session of the fifth annual conference of the West Ohio Region of the Ohio District of the Evangelical Synod, which opened yesterday at Salem Evangelical church.

Rev. J. C. Meichert of New Bremen yesterday was appointed chairman of the nominations committee. Named on the committee were Miss Beulah Gehm of Chattanooga, C. Wintzer of Wapakoneta, L. A. Cull of Marion and Richard Schaadt of Convoy. The committee on resolutions was named as follows: Rev. F. H. Graeper of Wren, chairman, Walter Grothaus of New Bremen, Miss Marie Poppe of New Bremen, Lewis Meikel of Convoy and Miss Laurence Park of Kettlersville.

Talks This Morning

This morning's session was devoted to addresses by Rev. R. J. Loew of Wapakoneta, former pastor of Salem church, and Rev. C. R. Schmidt of Cleveland, and a continuation of the sectional conferences which were conducted yesterday afternoon. Miss Bertha Scheidt of Honduras, C. A., a missionary, conducted the opening Bible study.

Missions Discussed

Rev. Schmidt discussed the home missions program in an address on 'Home Mission Objectives After 75 Years,' and Rev. Loew spoke on "Devotional Life and the Program of the Church." The talk was in keeping with the theme "The Devotional Life," which the synod has adopted for the coming year's work.

The morning discussion hour was dispensed with and in its place Rev. August Kitterer of Cleveland delivered an address on "A System of Finance for the Local Church," which was scheduled for the program this afternoon.

Rev. F. E. McQueen of St. Louis, Mo., editor-in-chief of Sunday school periodicals, spoke last night on "The Era Ahead," and in the afternoon discussed the synod's program for the coming year.

Period of Change

He described the present era as a "period of transition and an epoch beginning anew." He expressed the belief that the future success of the world depends upon the proper teaching of the young people today of the worth of human values "for the new era will not be different from the old." According to Rev. McQueen, radical thinking will be necessary. "If the new day is to be good, we will have to remove all the stumps which would interfere with the tilling of the soil," he said. "You see to it," he told his listeners "that your city and the country is not misgoverned." He urged that the church take a stand on issues of unemployment, war, etc.

In his talk yesterday afternoon he explained that the synod's program for the coming year will be

MARION DAIRYMEN IN COLUMBUS MEETING

"Informal Conference" Regarded as Step Toward Price Fixing Code.

The way apparently was cleared for a milk price code for Marion county when Marion dairymen and officers of the Marion County Milk Producers' association met with the Ohio milk marketing commission in Columbus this morning in an effort to iron out their differences.

At the conclusion of the conference, Harry M. Baliman, chairman of the commission, issued a statement saying that there was some differences of opinion voiced by the dairymen and producers during the conference, but that "the commission feels they will go back and call a meeting and then be in position to come to the commission with an agreement."

The meeting was described as an "informal conference." It followed a series of meetings here of dairymen and members of the association, who produce the milk distributed in Marion, in which a price agreement satisfactory to both dairies and dairy farmers was sought.

CONSUMERS TO CARRY BURDEN OF NEW TAXES

Revenue Will Finance Billion Dollar Program for Aid of Agriculture.

TO CUT CROP PRODUCTION

Government Will Pay Farmers Who Reduce Output To Eliminate Surplus.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—American consumers will be called on to shoulder a tax load of more than one billion dollars to finance the administration's program for a gigantic retreat in farm production.

Policies of farm adjustment officials hinge upon exaction of this tribute during a period of slightly more than two years, starting from last July 9 when processing tax No. 1 was levied on wheat until Nov. 4, 1935 when the hog and corn processing levies are scheduled to terminate.

Most of the proceeds which may be greatly augmented by compensatory taxes on competing products are scheduled to find their way to the pocketbooks of American farmers, reputedly the poorest and most in debt, for the last decade.

The principal consideration will be that farmers forego planting as much as in the past. The first to see the color of the government's benefit checks cotton farmers—got them for plowing up from 25 to 50 per cent of their crop.

To Remove Excess Supply

A substantial portion of the consumers' contribution will go to removing surpluses, particularly in joint purchases by the farm and relief administrations of surplus crops for the needy.

Today's status of processing taxes levied:

A $315,000,000 processing tax on hogs and one with estimated receipts of from $60,000,000 to $70,000,000 on corn, which Secretary Wallace has ordered into effect on Nov. 5, for a two-year period.

The 30-cent a bushel tax on wheat, which went into effect on July 9 with receipts forecast at $130,000,000 for one year. The rate soon may be boosted. Farm officials are committed definitely to continuation of this tax after July 9 next year with contracts with wheat growers covering 1935 plantings.

Cotton—The 4.2 cent per pound tax levied since Aug. 1 is scheduled to yield $150,000,000. The administration is committed to its continuance for another year to finance its new acreage control program, so it would total $300,000,000 in all unless rates are changed radically.

Tobacco—Taxes on various types of tobacco are scheduled to yield at least $20,000,000 this year and another $20,000,000 next year with the administration again committed in its grower contracts to a only necessities, and remain in the homes they now occupy.

It was agreed that farmers exchange their products for those of labor or unemployed on a production cost basis.

The farmers listed proposals for bringing about agriculture recovery.

Foremost in the demands was one

Withdrawal of Support by Strong Organization Brings Threat of Crisis.

They loomed in the prospect of an impeding break away by the militant and powerful ABC radical society—one of Grau's strongest supporting arms when he took up the reins after the overthrow of Carlos Manuel De Cespedes.

They were intensified by reports of unrest and of labor difficulties throughout the island, the spread of $4 of malaria cases in the city of Havana, trouble concerning the imprisonment of officers captured in the National Guard battle.

Starving of Pigs Lands Farmers in Municipal Court

Thirteen little pigs that never got to market were the basis for two charges in municipal court this morning, one of perjury and one of cruelty to animals.

The fact that the 13 pigs were separated from their mothers and starved to death formed the charge of cruelty to animals. Henry Kennelly of three miles east of Caledonia was brought into court on this charge.

Declaring the charge was false, Kennelly swore out an affidavit for perjury against Erwin Born, 48, whose farm joins Kennelly's. Born had sworn to the affidavit charging Kennelly with cruelty to animals.

The history of the case, as explained by court officials, is this:

Some sows owned by Born had a habit of trampling in Kennelly's corn field. Finally Kennelly locked the sows up in a building. Then, 13 pigs belonging to these sows were in a sorry state for lack of their mother. By the time the sows were restored to Born, he claims the pigs had died for lack of food.

Friends of Kennelly's contend Born could have fed the pigs, which were three weeks old, or slop and prevented their deaths.

Born and Kennelly were expected to be arraigned on the charges this afternoon.

Safe from Offensive Body Odor

Safe from telltale M. S., too! (MEDICINE SMELL)

Cause of Body Odor—Stale Perspiration Curds—Now Quickly Removed by Deep-Pore Cleansing

ARE YOU disturbed by the fear of Body Odor—yet reluctant to bathe with a soap that leaves an offensive medicine-smell?

Happily you no longer need bathe with strong-smelling soaps, whose after-odor is as offensive as the condition it is supposed to prevent Here's why

Research chemists have now discovered that the cause of body odor is stale perspiration—calcium, salt and particles of fat lodged deep in the pores The thick and sticky lather of most ordinary toilet soaps is unsuited chemically to mix with this waste material and set it free Instead, it hardens into clogging curds

That's why deep-pore cleansing is needed to remove the objectionable curds and chemists of the largest soap makers in America have now developed a quick and odorless way to end body odor instantly—with Kirk's Coco Castile Soap Kirk's Coco Castile, being a 100% pure vegetable oil soap, mixes with the particles of perspiration curds loosens them, then rinses out completely The only scientific way!

"Lathers Amazingly in This Hard Water"—says Nevada, Iowa, man. Nevada water is hardest in the state.

Try Kirk's Coco Castile today Feel the invigorating effect of its deep-pore cleansing action Experience the thrill of a clean odorless body Kirk's Coco Castile is half again larger half again heavier than average toilet soaps—an exceptional bargain Be sure to ask for Kirk's by name

Speaker Tells Ohio Drys America Suffering from Beer Clot on Brain."

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 20—Delegates to the annual convention of the W. C. T. U. traveled homeward with the admonition that America is "suffering from a clot on the brain" and her one cure is repeal, but in reality in a return to grog.

An address last night by Clarence True Wilson of Rochester, N. Y., general board of Rochester, N. Y., warned that if Ohio votes prohibition repeal, "the drys will take the vote as a mandate from you and open the saloon doors."

Wilson, chairman of the united committee for law enforcement, declared the state of New York as a "cesspool of suds" and a "Gemorrah of beer" and assailed what he said was Postmaster General Farley's defiance the national budget by his stand on liquor.

"There will be a case," he said, "in voting $1,000,000,000 from the people giving in return froth, scum and suds, and paying Uncle Sam for the privilege of robbing you."

VIOLENCE FLARES IN EASTERN SILK STRIKE

Three Men Injured as Rioting Breaks Out in Two Plants.

By The Associated Press

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 20—Three men were seriously wounded by bullets today as rioting broke out in the strike-torn silk district of northern New Jersey. One of the injured may die. The first shot in the strike was fired through the windshield of a policeman's auto. At least three strikers were injured and 15 were arrested in disorders at two plants.

The disturbances occurred at the Cretonia print works in Clifton, where one striker was severely injured and at the National Silk Dyeing company in East Paterson.

At the latter place, Fred Kreuger, a special policeman, threw a tear gas bomb into the midst of 800 strikers who had marched there from Clifton. A shot rang out, witnesses said, and a bullet shattered the windshield of Kreuger's car.

Sheriff Reilly immediately dispatched deputies, armed with shotguns and wearing steel helmets, into the neighborhood.

Two were injured in the melee and taken to Paterson general hospital. Fifteen were arrested.

CHILD DEATH RATE REDUCTION SHOWN

Lowered 15 Per Cent in Ohio in Last 12 Years, Health Officials Are Told.

Child mortality in Ohio was reduced 15 per cent in the last 12 years and can be further cut by early vaccination of children against smallpox and immunization against diphtheria, Ohio health commissioners were told in the conclusion session of their fourteenth annual conference in Columbus today, according to an Associated Press dispatch Dr. Kenneth Smith, city health commissioner, and Dr. N. Sifrit, county health commissioner, attended the conference.

Results obtained by vaccination and immunization were covered in an address by Dr. J. H. Hayes of Mansfield. "Vaccinate and immunize at six months of age and you will increase the child's chance of living," Dr. Hayes said.

The mortality rate in childbirth is also dropping in Ohio, Dr. H. G. Southard of Marysville, state health director, told the commissioners. In 1920 every 128th mother died in childbirth; in 1932 every 185th mother died, he said.

RELIEF HEAD PLANS TO ATTEND MEETING

Important Problems Scheduled for Consideration at Columbus Monday.

John Abel who will become county relief director Monday, is planning to attend a statewide meeting of relief directors with the state relief commission that day in Columbus.

Abel said he will attend the meeting provided present plans of having a commission representative here Monday to inaugurate the new setup are changed.

The nature of the meeting, in which the most critical of present problems will be discussed, Abel said, probably will mean that the commissions representative will postpone his visit a day.

The discussion will cover the proposed "jobless schools," medical attendance in the homes of the unemployed and persons on the relief lists, state program for dealing with transients, state census of unemployment relief cases, distribution of surplus commodities, and the program for cash work relief.

UTILITY DRIVE HEADS HEAR FROM BOULAY

Informed Detailed Information Required With Application for Federal Funds.

The Citizens' Utility committee executive board last night heard a report by D. J. Finley on his recent conference with L. A. Boulay, state engineer for the Public Works administration, regarding procedure in Marion's movement toward a municipally owned water plant.

Mr. Finley quoted from a letter given him by Mr. Boulay stating that an application for federal funds for the construction of a municipal plant could not be given consideration unless accompanied by essential information such as the estimated cost of the plant, probable rates and other data.

In a discussion following this report, members of the committee pointed out that the survey for which the committee is now raising funds is the only means of obtaining the information needed to make the application.

CONSUMERS TO BEAR LOAD OF NEW TAXES

two-year program which must depend on the tax for financing.

To Tax Butterfat

Milk and Milk Products. The farm administration contemplates a levy of one cent per pound on butterfat to yield up to $30,000,000 during each of two years. While processing taxes cannot be levied on other products many are subject to processing taxes in cases where they compete with basic commodities.

More than two score products already face these compensatory levies but none have been ordered into effect. Secretary Wallace yesterday called hearings on the advisability of levying them on products vieing with corn and pork products for the consumer's purse.

The pork tax hearing will be held Oct. 30 and compensatory levies on cattle, sheep, fish, oils, poultry and eggs will be considered.

Sugar is listed as a competing product of corn whose rivals for the favor of housewives will be considered Nov. 2. A levy of one-tenth of a cent a pound on cane and beet sugar it is estimated, would produce $12,000,000.

Relief Under Way.

Without deliberate intention, the people have been fooled too often by reports of relief for closed banks to take with entire seriousness the newest promise of a plan. From the day their various banks closed, hundreds of thousands of depositors have hoped to get their money back. Perhaps they have been too eager to hear good news. It is possible that some of the good news they have heard was made that way by their own imaginations.

Few of them, even when their hopes were deflated most completely, have admitted to themselves the possibility that dollars caught in the banking structures collapse never could be salvaged in any proportion. They have dared to hope for something, however little it might be, although at a loss to understand the basis of their hope. They have sensed what was the true state of affairs behind the blank doors of their closed banks and the blank, impersonal faces of the man intrusted with the task of opening those banks—inability to establish a sound basis of hope.

Bankers have awaited definite instruction from Washington. State banking departments have waited to see what they could do, and officials in Washington with the power to give the word have waited to get it from a higher source. That source, probably President Roosevelt himself, has been subject to all the tremendous uncertainties of the situation. Obviously, he has striven to get relief to people whose money is in a closed bank. But relief is not here yet.

A deposit liquidation board has been organized within the Reconstruction Finance Corp. It will be the agency by which a billion dollars can be given to people whose funds are held in the form of frozen assets in a defunct bank. It does not mean that there will be, or can be, a dollar-for-dollar payment. It means only that a distribution can be made which will bring partial relief. Two months ago, the announcement would have been hailed a bit too enthusiastically, perhaps. Today, if enthusiasm seems a bit cautious, it should be blamed to experiences which have taught depositors that getting their money out of a closed bank is a long process.

A Well Turned Phrase.

Explaining why Germany will participate in no further negotiations concerning disarmament until treated as an equal, Chancellor Hitler on Wednesday delivered himself of a well turned phrase. "My predecessors suffered from what might be called the Geneva disease, which rendered them optimists toward the League of Nations but pessimists regarding Germany. I am just the contrary."

Here, in two brief sentences is described a fundamental weakness of the plan for an international community with proportionate representation in a world council. It is another way of saying that a chain is no stronger than its weakest link. The world community ideal cannot be achieved unless all subscribers to the project are willing to do their respective parts and capable of doing them. There must be a good foundation before there can be a dependable structure.

The League of Nations sustained a great loss in Japan's withdrawal. An even greater loss would be entailed if Germany were to withdraw. Yet, in both countries, the arguments for withdrawals are logical enough to convince even the bitterest critics that much more than unwillingness to preserve the league's principles is involved.

Japan and Germany both face problems which apparently cannot be solved by the League of Nations formula. Unfortunately, the solution chosen by one and contemplated by the other seems to conflict with the formula. Yet, it is hard to admit the imperfection of the league in the situation. If its component parts were more perfect, it could have served the two countries admirably.

It is possible that the existence of an organization designed to secure a more orderly universe has been a snare and a delusion for statesmen who wasted time gazing at the horizon when real problems lay thick about their feet. It is possible, also, that in a more orderly universe with more perfect leadership there would be time to consult both immediate and remote responsibilities. The idea of the League of Nations has not been [illegible] Japan and Germany [illegible] however grave defect in the [illegible] for attaining the ideal.

The Eagle's Bite.

Recognition by the [illegible] of the symbol that means [illegible] over many places of business [illegible] with his standards is hard [illegible] preliminature. They merely have [illegible] what the people have known for a long time.

Inclusion in the recovery act of power to punish by taking away the eagle as well as power to reward by granting the privilege of displaying it implied exercise of that power. Obviously, it was necessary to get NRA into effect before violations of its standards could be made the basis of punishment. Apparently, the time has come to deal with violations.

It may be questioned whether the purpose of increasing wages and employment will be served by dealing out punishment to the laggards. However great the value placed upon the insignia of compliance by average individual elements in American business may be, it is true that a great many employers would be willing to take their chances on getting along without it rather than trying to get along with it.

Throughout the process of promoting the cooperative effort to hasten recovery by making order out of chaos in business, stress has been placed on "compliance." No secret has been made of the certainty that a sufficient number of individuals refusing to work with the rest could wreck the whole effort. The thing was attempted by arguments appealing to patriotism and to good business judgment.

Threats of force against laggards, with the exception of boycott rumors that never materialized, were not common. All that has been accomplished is the result of willingness, not fear. The blue eagle's blessing has been held in high regard; his bite has been ignored for the most part.

It is questionable what can be accomplished now by demonstrating the bite on certain unfortunates who will be singled out as examples. In anticipation of what probably will happen, it may be ventured that the blue eagle will be able to accomplish by fear what hasn't been accomplished already by its straightforward appeal to common sense.

Success.

A few months ago, when conversation turned to Senator Huey P. Long and his ways, it was not uncommon for someone to remark that here was a man who would bear watching. He might be everything his enemies said he was, but in spite of all he was ambitious and a great vote-getter.

The fact is that attempts to laugh this objectionable opportunist out of existence had failed pathetically, until the intended victim, of his own accord, converted failure into success. The single act which turned the tide was the now famous Long Island episode, by all accounts one of the outstanding events of recent times.

The outcome of the senator's coarse buffoonery on that occasion was a mighty shattering of his reputation for invincibility. His tricks and bluster turned back on him without warning and left him with a moused eye. The eye, however, was only the symbol of what had happened to the man.

A few days ago, the senator made a speech at a Louisiana fairgrounds. His own people had been urged weeks in advance to turn out for the occasion. Thousands were expected, but only hundreds came. The handful of listeners who surrounded the speaker's platform, furthermore, gave the senator some bad moments.

They heckled and hissed. They booed and catcalled. They laughed when he boasted of his power. They jeered when he spoke disrespectfully of Franklin D. Roosevelt. They were amused at his bad grammar and irritated with his bad taste. In short, they showed unmistakably that Huey P. Long, once kingfish, is only a minnow to them now. Truly, "one good, hearty laugh is a bombshell exploding in the right place. In this case, it has blown an inflated politician right out of the water.

Highlights of Ohio History

Probably no other president-elect, save only Abraham Lincoln, ever left his home for the national capital to be inaugurated with greater uncertainty as to whether he would be inaugurated or not than Rutherford B. Hayes. When General Hayes left for Washington March 1 1877, the electoral commission, provided for to decide the result of the presidential election, had not completed the function and General Hayes had not resigned as governor of Ohio. The resignation was written, however, and in the hands of his secretary to be presented to the legislature should he be seated as President. At Pittsburgh, General Hayes was informed by telephone from Washington that he had the decision, but he waited until after he was in Washington to advise his secretary to present his resignation and Lt. Gov. Thomas L. Young assumed the governor's office.

I went to a studio recently with a broadcaster much in love with love. His lady fair was listening in and he explained how certain words and certain inflections would have a meaning all their own for her. It reminded of interpolations I used to write in small-town items as tender messages for the only girl. I spent hours fashioning them and they sound pretty gosh-awful, especially when my wife reads them to company. But then I regarded it as the flowering of genius.

Economy has given window dressing a jewel box sparkle along the de luxe shopping centers. Large display windows have a plushed box background with a small opening for display of a single article. An evening slipper, a purse, etc. The solitary effort produces a grandiose effect at one twentieth the ordinary cost.

Windows that, so far as I can recall, never change, are Tiffany's. Each for years displayed only a winged mercury in bronze. I always look the other way in passing, just to be snooty, too.

A little-patronized jeweler in our town unconsciously carried out the Tiffany idea. All my remembering years his single window held an eight day clock with a pendulum on a thread. This pendulum on top of the clock swung from one upright bar to the other, winding neatly around. I used to be often late from Mrs. Hanson's with the evening milk watching. And to this day I'd like to own that clock.

Governor A. V. He said that by commercializing enforcement he referred to the system in which an enforcer received a share of the fine collected.

Washington And Wall Street

BY GEORGE DURNO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Representatives of the retail dry goods trade had a very secret meeting here the other day.

Although the trade is now split into two factions over its impending code, both groups were represented.

Despite their family grievances they came together against a common enemy—the manufacturer.

The star chamber session was assembled to discuss proposed reductions in standard trade discounts that have been written into various manufacturers' codes.

It was agreed this boded no good for the black side of the retailer's ledger.

Plans were laid to raise a common fund which would defray the expense of having attorneys (or lobbyists) watch all of the manufacturers' codes and fight the discount reduction clause.

Then came the hitch.

Representatives of the Macy stores and certain mail-order houses (the minority fighting a cost-plus-10 per cent clause in the retail code) refused to ante up unless their money was also ammunition against any price-fixing provisions in the wholesalers' codes.

The meeting finally agreed. Which was paradoxical as the vast majority of retailers are demanding the stop-loss provision in their own code. Which is what the Macy, mail-order interests call price-fixing.

In fact the minority thinks it is about to sell a compromise to NRA whereby the retailers must agree only not to sell below net invoice. The fearful majority is frothing at the mouth for fear this will happen.

Congress

Entirely apart from this meeting there is much debate among the cut-price boys over the suggestion of setting up an "Anti-Price-Fixing Council" in Washington.

They're afraid they'd beat the provision in their own code against selling below cost.

Looking ahead to the next congress they see immediate revival of a movement to jam through price-fixing legislation along the lines of the Capper-Kelly bill that died last session.

Farms

President Roosevelt and Governor Morgenthau of the farm credit administration tossed cold turkey to leaders of the "farm holiday" movement recently. Nothing over side publicized the meeting but it looks from the subsidies as if the administration came out top side up.

Spokesmen for the embattled farmers of Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Illinois show up to speak their pieces.

The farm credit setup could find them to wire him collect the name of any mortgagee who pulled a wolf-at-the-door act. He promised devastating action.

Since they returned home the farmer revolt leaders have sent him from 30 to 40 telegrams a day.

Fortunately for Morgenthau every "foreclosure" so far has been merely a threat. He's batting 1.000 per cent but keeping his fingers crossed.

Slickers

When the revolters left the credit administration they descended on the White House for a heart-to-heart talk with F. D. R.

They told him a lot of chiselers and city slickers were trying to get off government mortgages the farmers who have plowed under their crops.

The President assured them they need not worry. If necessary he said, he would order those instruments exempted from all [illegible] and garnishments.

According to [illegible] Mrs. Reno's boys left [illegible] ultimatum.

They announced [illegible] to put in a farmers' [illegible] which would bar any sale of [illegible] produce below the [illegible] tion. They said they [illegible] all set for a general strike to bolster the principle.

Wet Goods

Officially the decision to open the spigot on foreign liquor is based on belief domestic stocks will ebb to nothing after prohibition repeal.

Now doctors all over the country have been squawking because the distillers have sky-highed the price of "medicinal" whisky. They say it's loading it on too thick on the truly sick.

Despite high duties Canadian spirits could now compete with many of our brands.

Fumed

Comptroller of the Currency J. F. T. O'Connor was no end miffed the other day when he called at the White House to see the President.

He started as usual into the office of Marvin McIntyre, Roosevelt secretary. "Mac" was out at the moment. A secret service man, not recognizing O'Connor, barred his way and bade him wait in the outer lobby.

The comptroller fumed but there he waited.

Notes

What has become of that crime report Prof. Ray Moley was working on? He has been out of office over a month now. Word reaches Washington that Dan Reardon, Al Smith's intimate, has purchased the Harrison brewery. This was the New Jersey plant owned by Waxie Gordon and his mob for which the permit was withdrawn. . . . Reardon's acquisition of the property is expected to make it respectable. The shaggy brown mane of President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers is a familiar sight in Washington's downtown district these days. . . . Lewis is an inveterate window-shopper and seemingly has plenty of time on his hands at present.

BY RICHARD WALDO

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—The administration has respect today from the highest financial circle here which was not previously in evidence.

Bond experts in banks and insurance companies take their hats off to the Liberty conversion. They are saying it is more than a success. Gyrations of the financial markets cannot alter the fact that the treasury's operation was an achievement of the first order.

After this exhibition of confidence in its leadership the country is now really out of the depression.

Mark it to come up for checking in 30 days.

Chiselers

When is an executive?

General Johnson's blast at employers who cheat the codes by designating flocks of employees as executives—and thus exempt from NRA rules—hit home in this city. Manufacturers and merchants have been widening this loophole to a diameter that would let an air squadron through.

A crack emporium holds the know record. It tripled its executive staff—and not a new name on the payroll.

Mayor

Is it a three-cornered fight for the mayoralty? Watch the line-up shifting away from that.

McKee is the target for everybody. The O'Brien and the La Guardia forces can lift Tammany's old guard can stage a win even if it loses the election but runs ahead of McKee. Then it will still have its machine—bent but repairable. Nothing but the mayoralty will do McKee any good.

The LaGuardia leaders—strong on Republican in national politics—mean to smash McKee. He hasn't gone born with them. He turned his pack "Renegade." And raising the religious issue by digging up something written 18 years ago has drawn blood.

As things stand today a secret and authoritative computation estimates the lost votes to the Recovery party at 100,000.

Tolerance

There was nothing new about the tale. It would have been used in 1926 when the Irishman first ran for office but for the vigorous objection from the late Louis Marshall, staunch Republican lawpartner of Samuel Untermyer. Mr. Marshall saw no fairness "in throwing something up which the man did when he was a youngster."

Pep

Watch Tammany do its stuff!

Never in the history of the Hall have appeals to the regulars been so frantic as during the past fortnight. District club-rooms ring with confidential pep orations to election captains and campaign workers. The old revival spirit is there. The horrors of hell ("you and every one of your family will be out in the cold for good"). The delights of Paradise ("if you put O'Brien over you'll never have to work again for the rest of your lives!")

D. A.

Men of long inside experience prophesy that Curry's organization will carry Manhattan. The other boroughs may beat O'Brien. But they lay odds that Tammany's district attorney will K. O. Fusion's Pecora.

That would be consolation. More of the boys have to see the D. A. than are ever asked to the City Hall.

Germany

Private cable information tells the story behind Germany's resignation from disarmament conference and league.

The German cabinet meeting preceding the announcement was the stormiest ever held. It was essentially a fight between the Nazi ministers with Baron von Neurath—conservative foreign minister—trying to act as umpire. Hitler himself was for moderation but was swamped by the Nazi radicals Goebbels, Darre, Ley and Goering. It was the first time The Leader didn't have the last word.

The prepared statement which Goebbels read to the waiting newspapermen was ready in his pocket before the cabinet meeting started. An hour later Hitler gave out a "second" statement.

Inflation

The last barriers to an unlimited inflation in Germany—predicted in this column three months ago—have been removed.

The government's decree abolishing the supervisory board of the Reichsbank and authorizing it to buy stocks and bonds to serve as a basis for note issues cleared the decks. The Germans need the formal approval of the Bank for International Settlements for this step but this institution has so far ignored the Reich's application.

Americans closely identified with the B. I. S. say the bank couldn't stop Germany anyway and a neat way out has been found as an alibi for playing dead. The banks lawyers discovered that the B. I. S. could exercise its veto power over the affairs of the Reichsbank only in conjunction with the Young plan. That distinguished corpse is on ice. Therefore the Bank for International Settlements is happily rid of its responsibility.

TODAY
Arthur Brisbane's News Review

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—The story of the latest lynching is unpleasant and arouses sympathy. Not much with the victim, dragged through the streets of the town at a rope attached to his rear end of an automobile, hanged and his body burned, as while the mob men, women and children packed so closely about the fire that burned the Negro's body that the police could not fight their way through.

The victim, it is alleged had confessed his crime, for which no punishment that human beings might properly inflict could be too great.

The dreadful part of the whole performance is its revelation of human nature, when you "scratch through the surface."

A white boy of 18, cutting the Negro's ear while he was still alive and helpless, scarcely proves the superiority of his race, and most amazing in the south, where respect for women is great, the Associated Press reports: "Even the oak tree despite the presence of women and children all the victim's clothes were torn from his body and he hung there for some minutes nude."

Changed by Mob Spirit

There is consolation in the knowledge that a mob's actions do not accurately represent the character of individuals that make up the mob. Members of a mob are as different from their ordinary selves as dogs hunting in a pack from an individual dog by the fireside. You realize it when you read, also from the Associated Press dispatch: "The mob members seemed crazed, continually leaping on the Negro, even after he fell to the ground and was unable to rise."

The late Professor Shaler of Harvard, in his book, "The Man" declares even a group of clergymen might be transformed into a lynching mob.

Those that tortured, hanged and burned that Negro are to be considered as a mob only, not as representing any race or section. The world saw such mobs, on a bigger scale, during the World war.

To Discourage Kidnapers

President Roosevelt and his department of justice deserve thanks for their energy in discouraging kidnaping. Sending eight or nine kidnapers to jail for life is effective discouragement.

Now the President orders an intensive investigation to be made of the Lindberg kidnaping.

Kidnapers, present and to come, would be influenced, beneficially, by conviction of the Lindberg case criminals even at this late date.

An able police official of Chicago, who worked on the horrible Loeb-Leopold murder, believes that Col. Lindbergh's child was abducted and murdered by one or more depraved students, as a "stunt crime."

Mr. Capone told this writer, who visited him in the Chicago prison, "The Lindbergh baby was not abducted by any regular mob. They wouldn't be so foolish. That was the work of some crazy fool working by himself."

Hard To Please All

Charles W. Bryan, governor of Nebraska, brother of William Jennings Bryan, fears what "farmers unrest may lead to." He says, "It is bringing on a condition that we cannot shut our eyes to."

He and the farmers whom Governor Bryan describes as a "seething mass of unrest" denounce what they call the "policy of pouring money in at the top."

The government is buying tens of millions of dollars' worth of pigs; it will buy millions of pounds of butter monthly, plus millions of dozens of eggs and much beef to be given away. That surely is pouring money into the pocket of the farmer, or does it go elsewhere?

Get the Right Labels

Two men on Tuesday died after drinking bad whisky, made of poisonous alcohol.

The end of prohibition will not end such whisky, for heavy taxes undoubtedly will continue the possibilities of bootleg profit.

Whatever you drink, beer, wine or the stronger drinks, be sure to select a respectable label for your protection. Names of well-known respectable brewers, wine growers and distillers will give you protection if you insist on having them.

Joe Crawford of Morehead, Ky., past his hundredth year, decided it was about time to die, and started digging his grave. He never finished digging. When he failed to return to his work, neighbors found his body, finished the digging and buried him.

There is no fine monument for there will be nothing in [illegible] encyclopedias, or the "lives of great men," about him.

But Joe Crawford lived his hundred years, did his share of the world's work as it came to him, obeyed the law, behaved himself, helped his neighbors, injured nobody.

In the Angel Gabriel's book his name is perhaps written as large as the name of Hitler, Stalin, Mussolini or even Christopher Columbus or Genghis Khan.

Songs and Dance Impressive

Ethel Fay Locker, as "Asenath," with whom Joseph falls in love, gives a delightful rendition of the drama's love song, and Marilyn Meseke, Marion dancer, contributes to the effectiveness of the Pharoah court scene, by appearing as the court dancer.

Others in the cast are Paul Maxwell, Robert Heimlich, Dale Miller, Glenn Patton, Robert Adams, George Strohm, Robert Faust, Howard Zuspan, Hamilton Clarke, Earl Cramer, Carl Foyer, Vivian Williams and Fred Willis, in Hebrew roles, and Marion Cole, Marvin Hanover, Fred Barr, Allen Kent, William Schott, Bernard Brooks, Ernest Patton, Harry Potts, Milton Birnbaum, and Nina Kidd as Egyptians. Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be controlled.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may keep you constipated as long as you keep on using it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna — a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is at all druggists. Member N. R. A.

Daily Guide to Health

"Cures" of Little Benefit.

If you ever had sciatica you will agree with me it is a painful affliction and one to be dreaded. We hate all pain but this seems to be particularly severe.

Recently a man talked with me about his sciatica. In his eagerness for a quick cure he had resorted to all the well known remedies but had obtained little relief. His pain was intense and he was desperate for a cure.

The victim of sciatica must realize that this ailment may be due to one of many things. In order to obtain a cure it is necessary first to undergo a complete physical examination. The man I mentioned had failed to do this. Instead he had resorted immediately to patent medicines, home remedies and "cures" recommended by everyone but a doctor who had found the real cause.

This disease is an inflammation of the sciatic nerve which is the largest nerve in the body. It runs down the back of the thigh and is embedded between the deep muscles of the thigh. At the knee joint it divides into two branches which supply the parts below the knee.

Because of its large size and position in the body, the sciatic nerve is extremely susceptible to blows, infections and inflammations. The trouble can often be traced to localized infection somewhere in the body. The toxins or poisons of this infection are carried to the sciatic nerve where they set up the inflammation.

Infected teeth, gums, nasal sinuses, tonsils, gall-bladder or appendix may be the seat of the disturbance. When the diseased organ is removed or properly treated, the inflammation of the sciatic nerve subsides. Occasionally sciatica can be traced to a constitutional disorder, such as diabetes or tuberculosis.

The victim of sciatica first complains of a backache. The ache or pain soon travels downward along the course of the nerve. The pain is "shooting" in its nature and may extend from the buttocks to the thigh. In some cases it may even reach to the heel.

Sciatica pain may be so severe as to completely incapacitate the sufferer. He becomes bedridden and even then contact with the bed clothes causes pain. The symptom is usually worse at night.

There are many drugs that relieve the pain, but none that will cure. Cure is only possible when the underlying cause is determined and removed. After this is accomplished complete recovery can be hastened by heat applications, massage and certain exercises. This treatment prevents shortening of the nerve and further disability.

Answers to Health Queries.

Mrs. T.R.T. Q—My husband is losing his beard in patches on both sides of his face. The trouble starts with a little water blister and then the hair comes out. There is no redness or roughness of the skin. He is strong and healthy. The spots seem to have increased in size lately. What would you advise?

A—This may be due to ringworm. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.—Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

AVOID THE DANGER OF CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Overcomes This Condition Safely and Pleasantly

The first signs of constipation may be headaches, tired feelings, sallow complexions, sleeplessness, loss of appetite. If neglected, constipation may seriously impair health.

Today, you can banish constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of iron for the blood.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action similar to leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, and gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Two tablespoonfuls daily will overcome most types of common constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CONTEST BLANKS ARE AVAILABLE

Ralph E. Epley, manager of the Cussins & Fearn store here, announced today that applications are now available for entering in the company's contest, in cooperation with station WCAH in Columbus, for selecting the most promising soprano voice in Ohio. Epley said a district contest will be held here shortly. The state winner will receive a trip to New York for an audition with the Columbia Broadcasting system, he said.

Dr. William Mayo, Prominent Surgeon, Declares "We Memorize Too Much".

CLEVELAND, O. Oct. 20 A prominent member of the medical profession took a look at his countrymen today and concluded that "under our present form of education" Americans as individuals "are great men, but collectively we are a failure."

Dr. William J. Mayo, head of the staff of the Mayo clinic in Rochester, Minn., made the statement in an informal discussion of the ways of educating young men as engineers as well as doctors.

"At present" he declared we throw together into engineering a group of men each educated along his own narrow line. Now has a broad general knowledge of the problems of his country. A general" education of youth be added ultimately would improve government.

"We have been teaching our youth too much memorizing of things of the past. It does not mat-much to do with reciting in classes seven hours a day, but he was a willing extra man when the call went out over the campus that the classes needed a man to fill out the cast of their current play. He appeared as bartender when the literary club at the university staged "Ten Nights In a Barroom," he remembers, "Othello" was a complete failure as a tragedy and was one of the most hilarious comedies ever staged at the university. Among other things, while he was acting as make-up man between appearances as the duke, he was called upon to powder Desdemona's face to a deathlike pallor after she had been smothered by the Othello. While he was in the act of vigorously applying the powder the protecting curtain fell down exposing the duke and Desdemona to an audience already hysterical with the fervent efforts of college boys and girls to stage a great tragedy.

Although Mr. Warner wasn't a student of drama at the university he was a debater of no mean ability.

He represented the Franklin Literary society of which he was president on a joint team of which Irving Carpenter now common pleas judge in Norwalk, representing the Philomethean Literary society was the other member. They waged and won many a debate for their school. Among others with and against whom he debated were the present Common Pleas Judge Zeiseger of Youngstown and Ernest Owen former Marion man who is now a Poughkeepsie, N. Y. publisher.

The only times that Mr. Warner has appeared in dramatics from the time he left school until he joined the Mimes last year has been as a member of the degree staffs of Marion Council No. 22, R. and S. M. and Marion Lodge No. 402, Knights of Pythias. He's a past thrice illustrious master of the council, a past master of Marion Lodge No. 70, F. and A. M. and a past chancellor commander of Marion Lodge No. 402, K. of P.

Story Underdrawn

Speaking of "Both Your Houses," he says that even as a farce, the author has under-drawn the picture of congress. And Mr. Warner speaks from personal observations in Washington, D. C. and the statehouse in Columbus. The story isn't "incredible" as his closing lines states, he says, it's the truth, and not half of the truth.

Here's a sample of "Sol's" lines in the play, spoken when the appropriations committee chairman, Jay Vaughan, says that a $40,000,000 bill which has been worked up to $200,000,000 by the addition of each committee member's private graft, "looks fishy":

"My God, a little honest smell of fish would hang over it like an odor of sanctity! It's loaded down with post offices and subsidies and river and harbor dredging and insane asylums and smaller miscellaneous graft till it stinks clear out on the Pacific."

Homemaker's Question Box

Question—How can I make good gravy?

Answer—In preparing meat there is always much of the good flavor and fat in the pan drippings. This should be made into a gravy or sauce. Many housewives are afraid to make gravy with pan drippings for fear the gravy will be lumpy and greasy. After the excess fat is drained off there should be left 3 tablespoons of fat for each cup of gravy desired, according to the specialist in nutrition for the Ohio state university. Then add 2 tablespoons of flour for each 3 tablespoons of fat. Blend the fat and flour and stir until it becomes a [illegible] mass. Next, it does not [illegible] add 1 cup of cold water [illegible] stock for each 2 tablespoons of flour. It is more difficult to make gravy with hot water since the flour will cook before the gravy can be stirred smooth. Stir constantly until the mixture boils. Season to taste.

C. OF C. BIG AID TO RETAIL MERCHANTS

... in their pro- ... trading in Mar-

... opportunity ... when W. D. ... the Chamber, ... to help them- ... action is the ... citywide selling ... of contacting ... at a steadily ... surrounding Mar- ion. By making a united appeal to prospective customers in this district, merchants could go to almost any lengths to extend the trade territory and give Marion a warmer spot in the hearts and pocketbooks of persons living in rural counties, he said.

Much could be done in the way of providing parking space for these persons when they come to Marion and otherwise catering to their wants Mr. Brown said. Merchants also should have a greater interest in farm organizations, such as the Grange, he said.

The Chamber offers merchants other services than transportation methods. It acts as a better business bureau to guard against false schemes and untrue advertisements. Its direct service to members is expected to be greatly increased when the telephone code makes it almost impossible for them to maintain a central organization through which to get in contact with the state and federal governments as well as to have the members to see that provisions of the code are obeyed.

Advantages for All

"The Chamber," Mr. Brown asserted, "gives the small merchant just as many advantages as the large one. From the large business concerns we expect to get several memberships and from the small ones at least one membership. Only by obtaining memberships from all merchants and dealers can the Chamber undertake to represent truly the retail interests of Marion."

"The retailer is benefited by all phases of the Chamber's activities —industrial, public and civic," Mr. Brown continued. "It's up to him to help this program along and do his part in making even greater benefits possible."

SHE went back to Grove road and rang the bell of No. 2

Here was quite a different type of landlay—a stout rolling person with a bibulous eye and an easy, jolly tongue. Of course she remembered Miss Williams—

"Why, she was married from here—and a pity she couldn't have a proper wedding. After all, you can't get married that way only, once, with a wreath and a veil and white satin slippers."

"Oh, yes," said Caroline. "And about Miss Williams?"

"Ah! She's in the handsome haughty style. I was more clinging—a way with me, if you understand what I mean—a bit on the playful side. It goes down with the gentlemen—especially if they're in the strong silent way themselves. It's the little fellows that fall for the big upstanding girls."

Caroline's heart jumped. She said quickly and breathlessly.

"The man Miss Williams married—was he small?"

"Never set eyes on him. Yes, you may well look surprised. 'The mystery man,' I called him, and fine and angry she was—'And what do you mean by that, Mrs. Hawkins?'

"'Why,' I said 'when a young lady keeps her young gentleman as dark as you do yours—meeting him round the corner and not so much as letting him see you home—well, she must expect remarks to be passed, and whether she expects it or not, passed they will be.'

"Really, you now, she'd a violent temper, for I'd hardly got the words out of my lips, when she was through the door and banged it so hard that my first-floor-front came out on the landing to know what was up. 'Tempers,' I said. 'And mystery or no mystery, I'm sorry for the man that marries her, for she's one of those that'll have the upper hand or bust herself.'

"Was she here long?" said Caroline.

"Took the room for three weeks and came and went. You've got to live three weeks in a district before you can get married here, so she left a bag, and she'd be here for a day and gone for a week—and I'm not saying I wasn't just as pleased, because the opinion I got of her was that if she'd been here the whole three weeks she'd have been running the show, and me doing odd jobs and cleaning the boots and knives."

Caroline felt an affection for the bibulous lady. She felt that way about Nesta herself. She was a little cheered; but at the same time she didn't really seem to be making any progress.

"And you never saw the man she married?"

"No one in this house so much as set eyes on him," said the fat woman regretfully.

• • •

IT was after six when Caroline got back to the cottage. She found Patsy Ann sitting pensively on the hearth-rug. She had a thimble on the middle finger of her right hand, and some blue velvet, a needle case, a spool of silk, and two pairs of scissors in her lap.

But she was not sewing; she did not seem even to have got as far as threading one of the needles. When the door opened, she was gazing into the fire, which was on the point of going out. Without turning her head, she said

"Robert Arbuthnot has been here."

"My poor thing! What has gone wrong now?"

"I don't see why anything should have gone wrong."

"Robert doesn't generally come unless it has. Why, it's only a month since he dropped in to say your Beet Sugar bonds had defaulted on interest. What is it this time?"

"Robert came to lunch."

"He always does—and breaks the glad news over the coffee."

Patsy's head came up suddenly.

"Why do you always make fun of Robert? I think it's very wrong of you! I'm sure it's very good of him to take so much trouble over our affairs—besides, this was different."

Given in Marriage

BY ADELE GARRISON

Artful Avis wins an invitation to accompany Dicky and the others on the trip to the hospital.

I HAVE SEEN girls who, everybody agreed, were so inane that they bored people to tears with their silliness, but never have I seen any one possessed of the infinite possibilities in asinine behavior that Avis Arlen displays.

Her appeal to Hugh Grantland, when he and Harry Underwood were carryng Dicky to the car which was to bear him to the hospital, was, I felt, the capsheaf of her moronic impertinence. And from the face of the others near us, I gleaned that they shared my feeling.

If Hugh heard her ask him if there were not something she could do, with the added ridiculous comment, in the presence of Katharine's trained professional efficiency, that she had taken first aid, he gave no indication that her words had reached him. With his eyes fixed upon Dicky, as were those of Harry Underwood, he plodded onward with the big man, sharing the burden of Dicky's wounded body.

Invites Ridicule

Even her mother must have realized the ridicule which the girl was inviting, for she called sharply:

"Avis! Come over to me, dear! Can't you see you're bothering them?"

"Oh, Mumsie darling!" Avis turned to her mother with a prettily protesting air. "Please don't make me come away from here. This is so thrilling, and I just know there's something I can do to help Hugh—and poor Mr. Graham," she added, as if by an afterthought.

"I am sorry to disillusion you, Avis," Katharine said suavely, "but the only way you can help us just now is by going over to your mother, as she has so wisely suggested. We want to get Mr. Graham to the car and the hospital as soon as possible."

Vamping the Doctor

"Even if I can't help, Hugh," she cooed, "won't there be room for me in the car? I've never seen anything like this—an emergency case in a hospital—and it will be such a wonderful opportunity for me to observe things. I'll be just as quiet as a little mouse, and I'm so slender I can squeeze I can squeeze myself into the smallest possible space. I know the doctor wouldn't mind my coming along: Would you, doctor?"

I doffed a mental chapeau to her astuteness. Hugh Grantland's face had not changed a muscle at this, her second appeal to him. If he had not heard her, he was giving a marvelous imitation of deafness. And in a flashing instant, she had changed the objective of her campaign and was sending a languishing, appealing glance to the young surgeon, whom I knew she had never seen before.

That he was a susceptible young medic I saw, as his eyes widened slightly at the sight of Avis in her exquisite gown, leaning toward him, her eyes with their skillfully adjusted artificial lashes lifted appealingly to his. And in his voice, when he answered her, there was the promise of a victory for her.

The Invitation

"There won't be room for you in the car with the patient," he said. "We shall have to be most careful about crowding him on account of his arm. But—if you don't mind sharing my runabout, I shall be delighted to let you accompany the party. I don't know how much you will learn; but I'll let you see all I can."

Avis clasped her hands theatrically, while her eyes said unutterable things to the palpably impressed young surgeon.

"Oh, doctor, how perfectly heavenly of you!" she gurgled.

I noticed that, despite the young surgeon's evident recognition of the girl's attractiveness, he had not stopped in his steady advance behind Harry and Hugh, who were carrying Dicky. Avis had been compelled to walk along beside him and when she sent an appeal to Hank for her wrap, she was well down the steps and into the farm yard.

But Mrs. Arlen, usually a helpless nonentity in dealing with her daughter, was patently aroused to the necessity of saving her from ridicule and the censure of those of us whose only concern was the safe transit of Dicky to the hospital.

She made no further effort to dissuade Avis from going with the surgeon, but I saw her speak softly to Philip Veritzen, and by the time we reached the car the great producer, who was now the employer of Avis as well as her father's friend, was at her side.

"Come, my dear," he said, softly. "It is utterly impossible that you should go on this trip. You must come back with me to your mother."—Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

NATURE LOADS THE DICE

All of this analytic discussion over the respective "standards" of men and women, in matters of love and marriage, may be highly diverting; but it is a waste of time and good black ink. Because Old Dame Nature settled the whole question 'way back before the Monolithic Age, when the first dinosaur met his mate.

"Woman has nothing to gain by adopting man's standards," writes a young woman from Texas. "She should be an inspiration for the single standard; but that standard should be her own high standard—not man's."

• • •

On the other hand, Miss Sheilah Graham, that startling young writer from England, says, "I would not divorce a man I loved, simply because he had affairs with other women." And she goes on to prove that a man may be dead in love with his wife, and at the same time quite alive to the charms of other women.

And that is just where Old Lady Nature loaded the dice!

A man may adore his wife, even while he is holding another woman in his arms. But no woman can double-cross a man, so long as she honestly loves him. She can't even see another man.

A woman has a single-track mind and a one-way heart; and two men can't pass each other in her affections. When a gal coyly declares that she can't decide which of two men she's in love with, she is not in love with either of them. She's in love with herself, or with love. Or with her own popularity.

A man's heart, on the other hand, appears to be much more spacious. While there may be a sacred spot in it reserved for the woman he loves, there is plenty of parking space for any little temporary interest.

• • •

Nevertheless, as long as one woman really interests a man, he finds no time and has no eyes for any other women. It is a man's interest, not his love, that a woman finds it hardest to hold.

Of course nobody (except those who are still back in the dark ages with the horse-hair sofa and the embroidered lambriquin) believes that the double standard is "right." But if there is going to be a single standard it is woman who will have to set the standard.

Because men always have been, and always will be, just as good as the women demand they shall be—and just as bad, indifferent or inconstant as the women (all the women) will permit them to be. Just as tender and devoted as the women expect them to be—and just as selfish and fickle as the women encourage them to be.

As for divorcing a philandering husband—I'd fire him as quickly as I would a cook who had double-crossed me. More quickly, in fact—because, in these days, it's easier to replace a husband than it is to replace a good cook!—Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

The Stars Say

For Saturday, Oct. 21

The planetary configurations for this day point to rather routine conditions in employment and business, but something of a peculiar or sinister nature seems to menace domestic, social or affectional relations. There is augury of deception, subtlety, or peculiar or curious entaglement, calling for circumspect or very discreet management.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a rather routine state of affairs in business and employment. There may be some necessary extravagance or unusual outlay of funds.

A child born on this day may be fairly talented, perhaps extravagant and indulgent, but may be given to sentimentality, erratic or irregular ideals and leanings.

Notable nativity: S. T. Coleridge, poet.

How to Correct Underweight and Curb Nervousness

... and bring your child quickly up to par

A delicious Swiss food-drink that's bringing weight increases of a pound or more a week . . . . . Curbing nervousness and increasing appetite in children

IS your child underweight, nervous or "finicky" about meals—does he show signs of lassitude, irritability, lack of energy and appetite?

Then you should most certainly know about this remarkable way to make your child over. A way that frequently adds a pound a week or more to his weight; and acts remarkably to combat nervousness, too.

The discovery of a Swiss scientist will show you how to do this in a way the average child delights in.

It is a supremely delicious food concentrate. You serve it with milk, hot in winter and ice cold as a shake-up drink in summer. A food-drink accredited with achieving amazing increases in children's weight, nerve poise and strength.

Already this remarkable food creation (called Ovaltine) is endorsed by 20,000 doctors. While thousands of mothers give it religiously throughout the year for the remarkable health benefits it fosters.

How It Acts

Made by a special vacuum process, Ovaltine is different from any other food-drink in the world. And acts 3 ways to bring a child rapidly up to par and then to keep him there.

First: Weight is usually added at the rate of 8 ounces to 1½ pounds in a week. Not only because Ovaltine furnishes highly concentrated nourishment in itself. But also because it contains important properties recognized for their power to assist in the digestion of certain other foods that comprise a large part of the average child's diet.

Second: At the same time, appetite is stimulated in a scientific way. Not by merely "tempting" the taste. But by actually creating a definite sensation of hunger.

Third: As appetite and weight increase, nervousness is also frequently curbed to a marked degree. This is especially significant. For child specialists have long observed that underweight and nervousness go hand in hand.

In a series of recent tests conducted among children in New York State, nervousness—as measured by the Olson-University of Minnesota checking system—was diminished an average of 39% in 2 weeks when this remarkable food-drink was given.

Thus, Ovaltine acts to break up the vicious circle which underweight and nervousness tend to form. And promotes the development of a [illegible]

Give Ovaltine mixed with warm milk at breakfast always. At other meals and as frequently between meals as you wish. See for yourself what remarkable results it can bring in just a few days' time.

Remember—Ovaltine is extremely economical to serve. For it is all food concentrate—and contains no added sugar to give it bulk and cheapen its cost. You add your own sugar at home, so don't be misled if you're offered a sweet-tasting, "sugar-loaded" substitute in place of genuine Ovaltine.

You can get Ovaltine at any drug or grocery store. Or send the coupon below for a generous trial supply . . . Note, too, the offer of a genuine Little Orphan Annie Hot Ovaltine Mug (worth 50c) included in the coupon.

NOTE: Thousands of nervous people, men and women, are using Ovaltine to restore vitality when fatigued. During the World War, medical authorities made it a standard ration for rebuilding shell-shocked, nerve-shattered soldiers. It is also highly recommended by physicians for sleeplessness—and as a strength-giving food for nursing mothers, convalescents, and the aged.

Harding in Good Condition for Invasion of Findlay

RETURN OF INJURED REGULARS BOLSTERS STRENGTH OF TEAM

Presidents Battling To Keep Seasons' Record Above 500 Per Cent Mark.

Strong [illegible] Harding [illegible] Hardin. Hard work will be the make against Findlay [illegible] Saturday [illegible] a double [illegible] reserve [illegible] will [illegible] athletes [illegible] eleven [illegible] the [illegible] Memorial [illegible]

With most [illegible] squad off the hospital list Cheadle will take almost his full strength to Findlay and hopes the running right in the Harding camp that the Presidents will be able to come home with a victory their first over Findlay since 1929.

Few changes are [illegible] the Harding lineup although Cheadle declined today to name [illegible] starters. Indications are that Chappell and Walker will [illegible] on the flanks, Conant and Goerlich at the tackles, Mays and Meyer at the guards and Weiler at center. The return of Danner this week, after a long absence, is expected to send Goerlich back to the forward wall, from where he was drawn a week ago to add some weight to the ball carrying corps.

Whiteum, Danner, Frasier and Smart will get the first call in the backfield.

Air Battle Likely

Further indication that Harding may take to the air again Saturday came yesterday when Cheadle put the squad through a brisk forward passing session. Scrimmage was taboo as the Harding mentor took no chances of injuring any of his boys. The varsity took its turn first on offense and then on defense, the latter having been one of the team's weakest points in the last two games. Maury Whiteum will probably do most of the tossing against Findlay but if he is unable to connect the job may be turned over to Danner.

When the Presidents pile into action against the Findlay machine, they will be pitted against a team weaker than the one which squeezed out a 7-6 triumph over Harding last year but one which is nevertheless capable of putting up a stiff battle. The Hancock countians have won three games and lost two and have scored a total of 86 points while having 39 scored against them. The offensive total is not nearly so impressive, however, when one notes that 74 of the 86 points were rolled up against teams of minor strength. Upper Sandusky and Ada.

The complete Findlay record for the season is as follows: Findlay 40, Upper Sandusky 0; Findlay 31, Ada 6; Findlay [illegible] Fremont 14; Findlay 12, [illegible] South 6; Findlay 0, Toledo De Vilbiss 19.

Weight About Even

Assuming that the first eleven men of both schools take the field to start the game neither will have any advantage in the matter of weight. The average weight of each is approximately 157 pounds. Harding will, however, have a slight advantage if Don Severns, captain and fullback of Findlay, is unable to go. Severns weighs 165 but his understudy, Riley, weighs only 141. Severns is suffering from a twisted knee and may be on the sidelines at least part of the game. His loss would be a severe handicap as he has been doing most of his team's kicking and passing, as well as a large share of the ball carrying.

Two Networks Will Broadcast Ohio State Game

With numerous big games [illegible] country, those fans who prefer to sit at home and take [illegible] through the [illegible] will have plenty of contests from which to choose Saturday afternoon. The majority of the fans will probably be interested in the Ohio State-Michigan game at Ann Arbor but there are [illegible] other games in the east and mid-west which will come in for their share of attention.

The Ohio-Michigan game can be [illegible] through several stations. The NBC-WEAF network will carry it, starting at 1:45 p. m. with Don Wilson doing the announcing. The CBS-WABC net will also put it on the air, the broadcast starting at 2:15. CKLW at Detroit will also broadcast this game. The announcers for the last two stations are uncertain.

The NBC-WJZ network will carry a description of the clash between two unbeaten eastern eleven, Columbia and Princeton, starting at 1:45. Ford Bond and Sigmund Spaeth will alternate at the mike.

Graham McNamee and Tom Manning will broadcast the Army-Illinois game at Cleveland, the broadcast to go out over the following stations, starting at 1:45, WLW, WJR, WENR and WLS.

NOT WORRIED

Uzcudun Believes He Can Whip Carnera in Rome Sunday.

By The Associated Press

ROME, Oct. 20—Paulino Uzcudun is conceded little or no chance of beating Primo Carnera in their heavyweight title fight here Sunday but the basque and his managers outwardly at least, are unperturbed.

Paulino and his handlers insist Uzcudun is a good financial risk and state their opinion that the veteran Spaniard will wear "Da Preem" down to his own size in the first 10 rounds and then wallop him over the last five, perhaps even knock him out.

Primo boxed 10 rounds with Harold Mays of Bayonne, N. J. and Arthur Huttick of New York at Sequals yesterday and did some road work as well. Paulino, at Rome, worked six rounds.

Carnera was to wind up training today and make the trip to Rome by airplane, Saturday.

CRESTLINE TO FACE FAST LORAIN TEAM

Special to The Star

CRESTLINE, O., Oct. 20—The Crestline Merchants, with six consecutive victories, will meet the Lorain Fisher Foods at Lincoln stadium Sunday at 3 p. m.

The Lorain gridiron machine, with five victories and no losses, will offer the season's biggest argument to the Merchants claim of the semi pro championship of Ohio.

With an 185 pound line opening plenty of holes, and the famous Wolfe, triple-threat speed merchant knowing what to do with those opportunities, the Lake City outfit has increased the gray hairs of every semi-pro coach they have encountered this season.

The Fisher Foods use the Rockne system, concealing the point of attack and relying on man-to-man blocking to get the defense off balance, while the Merchants are disciples of the Warner system relying on deception and power to create openings.

When the final gun barks late Sunday afternoon one of the contenders will have hurdled a major obstacle in their championship race, while the other will be just another good football team.

OHIO MUST STOP THESE FOUR MICIGAN ACES TO WIN

Upon these talented versatile players the University of Michigan bases much of its hopes for a victory over the crack Ohio State eleven Saturday at Ann Arbor. These Four, the starting backfield, and about as fine an all around lot of ball carriers as one could ask, promise to cause all kinds of headaches for the Buckeyes as the teams renew their traditional rivalry before a crowd expected to reach 85,000. Left to right they are: Jack Heston, right half; John Regeczi, fullback; Capt. Stanley Fay, quarterback, and Herman Everhardus, left half. (Associated Press photo).

BLUFFTON - DEFIANCE GAME TODAY OPENS CROWDED OHIO SKED

Intersectional and Conference Jousts Billed for State's Gridirons Saturday.

By The Associated Press

The opening game of the football week-end raised the hopes of Ohio college elevens to the crucial stage today.

Ushered in by a northwest Ohio conference game between Bluffton and Defiance at Defiance this afternoon, the weekend card included four contests to [illegible] and some of the season's most important engagements tomorrow.

At Cincinnati tonight the Xavier Musketeers take on Wilmington and Jefferson. Two Ohio conference battles will be played under the lights, Kent State at Ashland and Heidelberg at Muskingum. Findlay tangles with the Dayton Flyers at Dayton tonight.

A big-time intersectional battle will be fought at Cleveland, where Army and Illinois meet on neutral ground.

Down at Athens the outcome of the Miami-Ohio university game may decide the Buckeye Athletic association title. When Baldwin-Wallace and Case meet at Cleveland, the score will have considerable bearing on the Ohio conference championship.

Other Ohio conference games tomorrow bring together Wooster and Akron at the latter's field; Marietta at Oberlin; Toledo at Kenyon; [illegible] at Capital, Denison at Otterbein and Bowling Green at Ohio Northern.

In the Buckeye, Wesleyan plays at Wittenberg tomorrow and Marshall invades Cincinnati tomorrow night for a tussle with the University of Cincinnati.

Besides Ohio State, the teams playing out of the state tomorrow include John Marshall at Ferris institute, Big Rapids, Mich.; Rio Grande at West Liberty, and Wilberforce, which meets Tuskegee at Chicago.

Bowling

Four members of the City bowling league made their initial assault on the maples last night at the Recreation alleys and four other teams will join this group next week. The Gasco club, City Ice and Fuel, Crystal Rock Beer and Midway Lunch rolled last night. These four will be joined next week by the Monarch Painting, Schaffner Furniture, Miller Cigar & Candy company and the Marion Paint company.

The Crystal Rock Beers took most of the honors last night, capturing the top score for the single game and for the three-game total. The beverage quintet piled up 948 pins in its third game and amassed a total of 2,658 for the three games. Steinmetz, who rolls lead-off for the Beers, scattered 575 pins in the three games for the highest individual three-game total.

Gifford, who rolls for the Midway Lunches, turned in the highest one-game score, a 209 total in the first of his three starts.

BUCKEYES READY FOR EITHER BALL

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20—Sam Willaman, Ohio State [illegible] is sure of being on the side [illegible] no matter what kind of [illegible] he selects to use in Saturday's Michigan-Ohio State game. COUNTY COURT LOOP PREPARES FOR RACE

At Least Eight Teams To Compete; Play To Start Nov. 18.

Representatives of eight teams were on hand last night as the Marion county Sunday school basketball league made plans for the opening of the titular campaign on Nov. 18. This assures at least eight teams in the circuit with the possibility of others being added before the race gets under way. The meeting last night was held at the Y. M. C. A.

Teams represented last night are Prospect M. E. and Prospect Reformed, Pleasant Trinity Lutheran, Green Camp Baptist, Waldo Reformed and Waldo Lutheran, Kirkpatrick M. E. and Morral M. E.

Another meeting will be held Saturday, Nov. 11, at the Marion Y at which time the schedule will be drawn up. All teams must have their entry fees in by that time, officials of the league announced today.

ARMY AND ILLINOIS ELEVENS READY FOR CLEVELAND CONFLICT

Cadet Coach Believes His Team Will Make Strong Bid for Victory.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 20—The grid machines of Illinois and Army converged on Cleveland today to test their cleats on the turf at municipal stadium, where tomorrow they meet in intersectional rivalry.

Although the cadets from West Point will not move en masse to the scene of the battle, Illinois' 160-piece band and a squad of 47 army planes from Selfridge Field, Mich., were expected to enliven the meeting of Army and the Illini.

The cadet cheering section is absent for the first time since Army's last appearance in the midwest, when it invaded Chicago in 1930 for a game with Notre Dame.

Lieut. Gar Davidson, who declares the West Pointers "intend to make a strong bid for victory" against a "heavier and more experienced team," was preparing to send his regular lineup into the fray.

The veteran Bob Zuppke planned a light workout for his 34 charges today and indicated Herm Walser, captain of the Illini, will be ready to take the field against Army.

Cleveland warmed up for tomorrow's program with a football luncheon and awaited the parade of the Illini band and the roar of the army planes. Last night the advance ticket sale passed the 20,000 mark.

Expert Picks Michigan To Beat Ohio in Tight Battle

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—On the theory that one man's guess is as good as another's, here's the way the outstanding games on the week end football schedule look in advance:

Michigan-Ohio State—Michigan by up 60 points against Michigan State and Cornell; Ohio State 95 to Virginia and Vanderbilt. The Big Ten title may rest on the result making it tough for both teams as well as the prognosticators. Stringing along with the champions, a timid vote for Michigan.

Army-Illinois—A young fellow named Les Lindberg may turn this intersectional duel into an Illinois victory. The lightest Army team in years has not faced a major foe but Illinois spilled Wisconsin last week.

Pitt-Minnesota—A vote for Pitt's rampaging Panthers but only after a terrific struggle with one of the Big Ten's most powerful elevens.

Notre Dame-Carnegie Tech—Howard Harpster has primed Carnegie for this game, building his hopes on a sturdy line and clever passing attack. Notre Dame, unimpressive in its first two games, will need to show improvement or take a beating.

Just About Even

Princeton-Columbia—Two of the east's major powers collide here with Columbia's experience perhaps more than offset by the Tigers' man-power.

Alabama-Tennessee—Some southern critics have labelled Alabama a "perfect team" and this, coupled with Tennessee's defeat by Duke last week, inspires a hesitant ballot for the Crimson Tide.

Fordham-Boston College—Boston College usually is one of the east's finest defensive outfits but this looks like the spot for Fordham.

Southern California-Oregon State—There's nothing to do here but to trail along with Southern California's Men of Troy.

Yale-Brown—A pair of strong defensive teams, neither of which has shown much scoring power so far. If there's an edge at all, it seems to belong to Brown although the Bruins apparently are not as formidable as a year ago.

Kansas State-Nebraska—This one may decide the Big Six championship and Nebraska is the indicated choice.

Chicago-Purdue—Chicago has made a come-back under Clark Shaughnessy but it's doubtful whether the Maroons are ready for Purdue yet.

Harvard In Tight Game

Harvard-Holy Cross—Another tough one, involving teams which have not yet shown their hands. Inviting disaster, a weaker seed ballot for Harvard.

Iowa-Wisconsin—This one should determine whether Iowa's victory over Northwestern was a real sign that the Hawkeyes are about to regain their former standing in the Big Ten.

Georgia Tech-Tulane—A basketball" score may come out of this one and, at considerable risk, I'll take a chance on Georgia Tech.

M'NAUGHT WILL TAKE ON LES FISHBAUGH IN NEXT MAT SHOW

Cobbler Signed as Injury Prevents Match Between Canadian and Weaver.

Scotty McNaught, the rampaging Canadian from Hamilton, Ontario, whose smashing way about has made him somewhat of a people's choice around Marion, will return to the city next Monday night to headline the mat, Monday night toe twisting carnival at the Steam Shovel gym.

Matchmaker Clete Kauffman had originally announced that McNaught would meet Buck Weaver, another dashing grappler, but Weaver ran into a lot of opposition earlier this week and suffered an injury which will keep him out of action for the time being.

With Weaver out of the picture, Kauffman scouted around and dug up another opponent for the Canadian and the second ankle-prom ises to be just as good as the original.

Fishbaugh Chosen

Les Fishbaugh of Newark, who sells shoes as a vocation and wrestles as a vocation, will take the place of Weaver for the two-hour melee. Fishbaugh needs no introduction here, having been a principal in some of the wildest frays which have been staged in the Steam Shovel gym arena.

McNaught has also been in some nifty turns on the local mat, his latest being only last Monday when he dropped a match to the middleweight champion, Gus Kallio. There are plenty of fans who contend an oversight on the part of the timer allowed the match to run 10 minutes overtime and deprived McNaught of a draw decision with the title holder. McNaught will be wrestling no champion Monday but he will take on a matman who knows all the tricks of the trade—including the dirty ones.

Newcomers On Card

The semi-final will bring the introduction of two light heavyweights new to this locality. Bob Montgomery, of Mobile Ala. and Lefty Tacer of Reno Nevada are the two.

Both come here with good reputations. The tip off on Tacer comes with the announcement by promoters that he trained as a fighter in the camp of Jack Dempsey for several years.

Montgomery is rated as a flashy performer, a heavily built blond fellow who rough it up just for the fun of a brawl. He recently defeated Ray Carpenter, of Lancaster, something which isn't being done every day in the week.

WILLING TO PLAY

Clark's Market Offers To Meet Merchant-Greys Sunday.

Taking up a challenge issued earlier this week, Clark's Market baseball team offered today through the team's manager, "Spike" Severns, to meet the Marion Merchant-Greys Sunday. The Greys issued the challenge as the result of a game last Sunday which went only two and one-half innings, the Clark nine leading when the game was called, 3-0.

To Break Deadlock.

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20—Coach Earle "Greasy" Neale of West Virginia and "Pop" Warner of Temple have a tie to play off when their teams meet tonight. In 1921, Neale's first year as coach at Washington and Jefferson, the Presidents beat Warner's Pittsburgh team 7-0. The next season Pitt won 12-0. The coaches haven't encountered each other in action since then.

VETERAN BISHOPS

Ohio Wesleyan's grid team this fall is amply supplied with ends, no less than four lettermen being available for the wing positions.

Arthur Belt of Baltimore, O., and Ray Harley of Ashtabula, are first-string wingmen, while Bob Soper, son of President Edmund D. Soper of Ohio Wesleyan, is classed practically as a regular. The fourth of the quartet is Floyd Kennaw of Columbus, who sometimes plays fullback.

These four find the competition tough not only among themselves, but they are being pressed hard by two first-class sophomores, Bill Stults of Ft. Wayne, Ind., and Bob Alexander of Warren.

SYARCUSE AGAIN ON WESLEYAN CARD

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 20—Ohio Wesleyan's Battling Bishops will try their luck at Syracuse again next year, it was announced Friday by Coach George E. Gauthier.

After losing, 40 to 0, to a strong Orange eleven last week, Gauthier announced that the Bishops have been scheduled by Syracuse for their Oct. 13, 1934, date.

The loss to Syracuse last week evened the series between the two schools. In the six games played Ohio Wesleyan has won two, lost two and tied two.

The Syracuse game is the only game definitely booked for next season, although Gauthier intimated that the usual round-robin with the other five Buckeye conference schools will be played.

CONFIDENT BUCKEYE GRID SQUAD CAMPS NEAR BATTLE SCENE

85,000 Expected To See Battle Between Ohio and Michigan.

By The Associated Press

DEARBORN, Mich., Oct. [illegible] Outwardly bristling with confidence, but underneath apprehensive, Ohio State unbeaten football squad was encamped today, eagerly awaiting the whistle which will send them battle tomorrow against a foe — the Michigan Wolverines Ann Arbor.

Ohio's official party comprising 35 players, coaches, trainers, managers and sports writers arrived early this morning, at this [illegible] made famous by Henry Ford. At 7:30 the party left the train and took up its headquarters at the Dearborn Inn.

This afternoon the Scarlet and Gray will be taken to the Michigan stadium where everything is in readiness and bustle with the erection of temporary bleachers to accommodate the crowd of some 85,000 persons expected to witness the game.

Ohio Faces Problem

Thus, Ohio finds itself face to face with the problem of gambling its title chances on the first throw of the dice on the Big Ten table.

Coach Harry Kipke's Michigan team has compiled a great record. Only once in the last three years has it been beaten, and that by Ohio State in 1931. Still, the Buckeyes have won three of the last five games with the Wolverines and never since Coach Willaman took over the coaching duties has Ohio had its team lost to Michigan at Ann Arbor, winning in 1932 and 1931 and losing the 1930 and 1929 games at Ohio stadium.

A battle between two great lines is expected Saturday. Ohio will put a big versatile forward wall on the field, boasting two exceptional tackles in Ted Rosequist and Blackie Conrad, while Michigan's line is the only one in the conference rated on a par with the Buckeyes.

Cramer at Quarterback

Schooled for the last two years by Michigan-coached teams, Ohio will send a well-drilled eleven on the field. At quarterback will be Carl Cramer, whose brilliant play in the Michigan stadium two years ago won the game for Ohio. Other three other players on the squad took part in that contest. They are Co-Captains Sid Gillman, end, and Joe Gailus, guard, and Mike Vuchinich at center.

Most of the secrecy has been removed from Ohio State's starting lineup. There's still a problem of whether it will be Heekin or Fisch at left half and there's still a chance that Deitch may replace Monahan at right guard. Otherwise Gillman and Padlow will start on the ends, Rosequist and Conrad at tackles, Gailus at one guard and Vuchinich at center. In the backfield Cramer will start at quarter, Smith at one half and Wetzel at fullback.

Irish Big and Tough but Carnegie 11 Not Worried

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 20—To his Carnegie Tech footballers, Howard Harpster is "just one of the boys" and that's one of the reasons a lot of Tech men believe the wearers of the plaid are in for a good year.

At 26, just four years out of Carnegie himself, "Harp"—he's "Harp" to everybody on the squad—isn't a lot older than many of his players, and merely hobnobbing with the boys has been productive of good results already.

Shaping up the club for the first big test of the season and his first as a big time gridiron tutor—tomorrow's battle with Notre Dame—Harpster spent most of today just hanging around with the fellows.

Chatting with them, kidding with them, he made no effort to deceive them about what he thinks of Tech's chances against Hunk Anderson's Irish.

"They're big and they're tough and we're the underdogs," he told the team—the same thing he told newsmen—"but we have a chance. Let's grab it."

No guff. No "die for dear old Carnegie" stuff from this 156-pound coach who is smaller than most of his players. Just: "We know what we're up against, but we have a chance. Let's grab it."

That's Harpster—the football opportunist. It was his philosophy during his undergraduate gridiron career: a career marked by brilliant play, quick thinking, an all-American quarterback selection, and victories over Notre Dame in 1926 and 1928.

IT WILL BE AT LEAST SIX WEEKS BEFORE MORTIMER CLAMBY WILL BE ABLE TO LEAVE THE SANITARIUM WHERE HE RECENTLY HAD HIS FACE REMODELED!
WHEN HE COMES OUT WHAT WILL HE LOOK LIKE?
A UNIQUE AND DARING ADVENTURE IS AHEAD OF THIS INTERESTING MAN WHOM THE WORLD THINKS HAS PERISHED!
WELL, I THINK I'LL SAY GOODNIGHT TO EVERYBODY AND HOP IN BED EARLY FOR A CHANGE!
HEAVENLY DAYS, CASPER! YOU'LL CATCH YOUR DEATH OF COLD WEARING THOSE FLIMSY SILK PAJAMAS IN THIS WEATHER, BUT I GUESS YOU THINK MORE OF STYLES THAN YOUR HEALTH! HERE! PUT ON THIS WOOLEN NIGHTGOWN OF MINE!
TOOTS, THIS IS JUST ABOUT THE LAST STRAW! FOR TWO PINS I'D FLATLY REFUSE TO WEAR THE NIGHTGOWN!
OH, PUT IT ON, CASPER! AUNT BLIMPEY MEANS WELL, BUT SHE JUST CAN'T REALIZE THAT YOU'RE GROWN UP!
JIMMY MURPHY
GR-R-R-R! ALL I HOPE IS THAT LUCK IS WITH ME AND THERE WON'T BE A FIRE TONIGHT!

ANNIE ROONEY — BY DARREL McCLURE

I'M HAPPY TO REPORT THAT MY NEPHEW JOEY IS OUT OF DANGER - BUT IN HIS DELIRIUM HE CALLED THE NAME ANNIE OVER AND OVER AGAIN - AND I WONDERED IF YOU COULD TELL ME =
SURE, I COULD! YOU WANNA KNOW WHO ANNIE IS? - WELL, SHE'S THE LITTLE GIRL WHO SAW HIM FALL OFF THE AUTO WHEN HE WAS STEALING A RIDE - HER NAME IS ANNIE ROONEY!!
ANNIE ROONEY? - WHERE DOES SHE LIVE?
WELL, TO TELL YOU THE TRUTH - SHE DON'T EXACTLY LIVE ANY PLACE - YOU SEE, ANNIE IS JUST A HOMELESS ORPHAN - BUT SHE'S AS NICE A KID AS YOU EVER SAW - WHY, THE WAY SHE TENDED JOEY, YOU'D THINK SHE WAS HIS OWN MOTHER!
USED CARS
C'MON, ZERO - WE GOTTA STEP ON THE GAS - IF MR. FENDER IS WILLIN' TO SHARE HIS PORK CHOPS WITH US, THEN WE GOTTA MAKE SURE TO HAVE 'EM COOKED ON TIME!
MEATS
DARRELL McCLURE

WELL, I'VE JUST HIRED A CHEF THAT WAS FORMERLY IN THE EMPLOY OF BARON UPWELL - IT'S JUST ANOTHER STEP UP THE LADDER IN SOCIETY FOR US-
AM I SUPPOSED TO BE HAPPY ABOUT IT?
THERE'S THE NEW COOK- HE LOOKS LIKE HE EATS ALL HE COOKS-
YES-MUM! I LEFT THE BARON AFTER BEIN' IN HIS SERVICE FOR FOUR YEARS-
WHY DID YOU QUIT? MAY I ASK?
OH! I GOT SICK AND TIRED OF COOKING CORNED BEEF AND CABBAGE FOR HIM- HE HAD IT FIVE DAYS A WEEK-

CRIPPLE IS LEFT DESTITUTE HERE

Companion Disappears, Taking All of Funds.

John Argenbright of London, O., a cripple, left destitute here when deserted by a companion, was expected to be taken to the county infirmary today pending action to send him to his home county, police said.

Attention of police was called to the case yesterday when it was reported that Argenbright's companion, a West View, Pa., man, had left Marion and taken with him money said to belong to him and Argenbright. The men had been staying in a West Center street rooming house, authorities said.

Argenbright's companion is said to have taken $5.08, all the money the two had between them, and a silver vase belonging to the proprietor of the rooming house.

Officials of London were to be contacted today in an effort to place Argenbright in their care.

Kiwanians Hear Talk On Great Men of Ohio

Great men of Ohio, from the time of Tecumseh, the great Indian chief born at Piqua, to the present day were named and their accomplishments listed by R. F. Fletcher, former business manager of The Star, and now business manager of The Portsmouth Times, in an address to Marion Kiwanians yesterday in Hotel Marion.

Mr. Fletcher named 135 men and told of interesting incidents in the life of the more important personages. He said his list is still incomplete.

Among those whose biographies he covered briefly were Ulysses S. Grant, born at Georgetown, who became commander in chief of the Union forces in the Civil war and twice president of the nation, former President McKinley who served 15 years in congress, later became governor and then was elected president, and Thomas A. Edison.

$1,000 TRANSFERRED TO RELIEF FUND

The city of Lima also was authorized to divert $10,720 for the same purpose and Hardin county was given authority to divert $36,670 in utility excise tax funds.

An automobile "museum," with displays of curios from over the world, stopped in Marion for a short time today. The traveling museum, operated by Claude C. Hale of East Clarkton, O., near Cleveland, was enroute to Hamilton, O., on a tour of the country.

The exterior of the car is clustered with automobile license plates from nearly every country in the world, besides those of this country, and collections of war relics and other curios.

Hale said his tour has included a five weeks' engagement at the World's fair in Chicago and visits to 26 states.
